

Madilynn Puetz
Philanthropic Youth of Today Award
Nominated by Three Harbors Council,
Boy Scouts of America

The oldest of three, Madilynn Puetz always lent a helping hand, especially at her younger brothers' Cub Scout meetings. When Madi had the opportunity to join the Boy Scouts of America, Scouts BSA program in 2019, she was all in.

Since joining Troop 2002, chartered out of the Bartlett Youth Foundation in Mount Pleasant, WI, Madilynn has held several leadership positions, participated in recruiting events, planned numerous campouts and was elected by her peers into the Order of the Arrow. Two years later, she is the current Chief of the Kanwa-tho Lodge. She has participated in and staffed National Youth Leadership Training and attended the National Jamboree.

Successfully raising close to $10,000 and securing another $4,000 in construction materials, Madilynn's vision of building an outdoor chapel for her Eagle Scout project is almost complete. The structure will be used for weddings, funerals, Vacation Bible School and other needs of her congregation.

Madilynn is enrolled in the International Baccalaureate program at Jerome I. Case High School in Racine, is a school ambassador, plays viola in the orchestra and is a member of the National Honor Society. She cantors and plays her viola at Sunday Mass and is a member of the Pastoral Council. Madi also works part time at Hometown Pharmacy. Madilynn lives at home with her mom and dad and brothers Cayden and Landon.
